THE KALEVALA SOCIETY FOUNDATION

Folklore Fellows' Communications (FFC) is a peer reviewed monograph series (ISSN 0014-5815) in the following fields of research: folkloristics, comparative religion, cultural anthropology, and ethnology. It focuses on the non-material aspects of traditional culture, especially oral literature, belief systems, myth and ritual, methodology, and the history of research.

FFC has been published for the Folklore Fellows since 1910 by the Academia Scientiarum Fennica (Finnish Academy of Science and Letters) until 2021, when the Kalevala Society Foundation (Kalevalaseura-säätiö) became the publisher.

Folklore Fellows (est. 1907) is an international network of folklorists, promoting scientific contacts between researchers, publication work and research training. Read more at <https://folklorefellows.fi>.

The Kalevala Society Foundation (est. 1911) promotes, funds, and publishes research and art relating to the Kalevala and cultural heritage. Read more at <https://kalevalaseura.fi/en>.
